

LOCKER ROOM RULES

1. The locker room regulations on the Exhibition of models with LEGO® bricks set out the rules for making the cloakroom available to Visitors and storing items left by the Visitors.
2. Only authorized employees may stay in the locker room.
3. For the storage in the locker room of the items referred to in point 5 of the Regulations, a fee of 2 lei for a piece of outer clothing or other left-away item is collected. The proof of payment is the receipt of a fiscal receipt. The fee does not apply to organized groups who have previously booked group tours of the Exhibition.
4. The cloakroom is open during the opening hours of the Exhibition and is intended for visitors to the Exhibition.
5. Only the outer garments with small clothing, such as a scarf, gloves, hats, umbrellas, storage items referred to in the regulations, can be left in the locker room.

There is no relative prohibition to leave money, jewelery, valuables, documents, keys, electronic equipment or other valuable objects, objects that may cause damage to third parties or their property, items that are difficult to store due to their dimensions or characteristics, including prams or luggage.

6. Adding storage items is treated as a new service and needs to be queued again.
7. The storage objects entrusted to the cloakrooms must have the possibility of permanent and safe suspension. If the items do not meet the above criteria, the cloakroom service may refuse to accept such item.
8. The cloakroom service issues a "number" confirming receipt of the object of storage.
9. The visitor may at any time demand the return of the items given for safekeeping. The basis for the request is to have a number.
10. The visitor who lost the "number" is obliged to immediately notify the service in order to avoid collecting items by unauthorized persons.
11. The release of the objects of preservation to the person who lost the "number" can only take place on the basis of a detailed description of the remaining items of storage, and not only on the basis of their indication. The visitor is obliged to acknowledge receipt of storage items on the issue protocol containing the personal data of the receiver. Before the receipt of the object of storage, the visitor is required to present a valid document with a photo to confirm his identity.
12. If the visitor who does not have a number is unable to clearly describe the details of the items stored in the locker room, he pickup takes place after the Exhibition has been closed on the day of the Exhibition, subject to points 10, 11 and 12 of these Regulations.
13. For the items and property left in the locker room in violation of the ban described in item 5 of this Regulation, the Exhibition is not liable.
14. In disputable cases, not included in the rules of procedure, they are settled on the basis of the applicable provisions of the Civil Code.
15. The regulations are in force during the Exhibition of models with LEGO® bricks.

16. By giving items for storage in the locker room, visitors accept these Regulations.
